NARRATIVE
On the above date and time, Ptl. [REDACTED] and I responded to [REDACTED] on a report of a violation of a restraining order. Upon arrival we spoke with the caller [REDACTED] who stated that her ex-boyfriend [REDACTED] had been logging into her house alarm and security system (Simply Safe). Officers then questioned [REDACTED] about the restraining order as the call came out as a violation of TRO. [REDACTED] then confirmed to officers there was no actual violation of the restraining order and neither party had communicated with each other. [REDACTED] then explained what happened was that back when the two where dating they set up her home security system together and signed it up under [REDACTED] email. Then recently for the last month or so she had been getting notified that another phone has been connecting to her house security system. [REDACTED] would remove this extra phone every time it was logged in but every time she did, it would be re added shortly after. [REDACTED] believes this extra phone to be [REDACTED] phone as no one except [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] had ever been on the account. [REDACTED] advised officers she had screenshots of the extra phone added onto her account and I advised her to email them to me so I could attach them to this report.

The screenshots [REDACTED] had showed officers did not have [REDACTED] name on it or anything identifying the phone as his but did show that it was a secondary phone constantly being added back to the account, the screenshots showed 2 different phones as active users for the security system. Officers were then informed by [REDACTED] that she had a court date this upcoming Tuesday for the restraining order against her. Officers then advised [REDACTED] we would be taking a report for her and that she could mention this at her court date or go to court on her own and inform them of this situation and advise them of the report taken tonight.

After confirming there was no other issue and that the restraining order had not been violated all units left the scene. At the time of writing this report I have still not received any screenshots from [REDACTED] in regard to this case, I will be submitting this report as is and following up with [REDACTED] tomorrow. If screenshots are received, I will be attaching a supplemental report to this one. Nothing further.
